Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

The International Journal of Advances in Business and Management Research \(IJABMR\) (eISSN 2584-1718), emphasizes integrity and transparency in its publications. Authors are obligated to disclose any potential conflicts of interest that could affect the objectivity or reliability of their research and findings. This requirement helps maintain the credibility of the journal and ensures that published works adhere to the highest ethical standards. By openly addressing any potential influences, the journal fosters accountability and builds trust among readers, reviewers, and the broader academic community. This commitment to transparency safeguards the quality and impartiality of the research it disseminates.

Proclamation

Conflicts of interest may arise from personal, financial, or professional relationships that could influence or seem to influence the impartiality of one's work. Authors must declare any real or perceived conflicts, including funding sources and financial or interpersonal relationships, to enable readers to assess the content with complete transparency and informed judgement.

Policy

- Authors must disclose all funding sources and any relationships that may influence their work.
- Editors possess the authority to reject submissions if sponsors have influenced the authors' capacity to publish their findings, thereby safeguarding the integrity and independence of the research published in the journal.

Submission

- Complete and sign this form to acknowledge your comprehension of the conflict-of-interest policies.
- Preferably, all authors ought to provide their disclosures and signatures on a unified form. Separate forms for individual authors are permissible if necessary.
